

Solomon Parham - Musician

Objectives: Surrounded by legendary musicians in his childhood, Solomon Parham began playing trumpet at the age of nine. Learn how he transforms his passion for music into a weekly community event and create an event to showcase your own passions.

Tools/Resources: Paper, colored pencils, markers and/or paint.

Video Clip: <http://www.tpt.org/mn-original/episode/solomon-parham/>

Activity:

- 1) Think about your own passions (i.e.: writing, spoken word, theater, sports etc.). Imagine a weekly event that utilizes your passion to engage a wider community.
  - a. What is your ideal venue?
  - b. What is the intended audience?
  - c. What is the name of the event?
- 2) Design a poster for the event using your supplies. Be sure to include the location, name and type of event.
- 3) Regroup to discuss the segment and the posters you created.
  - a. What is unique about your event?
  - b. What passion did you use to create your event and why did you choose that passion?